K M 17 WONDERS—A big red bull that has plenty of weight for age. Probably the best bull we have ever produced. He is a double-bred great grandson of Willow Lee Wonder 17th, a great breed improver whose blood is getting scarce. Look him over, we think you'll like him. From an accredited and certified herd.

The first-prize pair of bulls at the 1964 Canadian International Bull Sale was shown by Cyrus Eaton's Acadia Farms. Lot 1 is a half brother to these winners.

ACADIA NAPOLEON 156th—Two years old at sale time, this mighty stock bull is easily as rugged as the rocky shores of Nova Scotia that produced him. He is by the same sire as the $3,300 Canadian International Bull Sale reserve grand champion and a $2,000 first-prize winner there that together were the best pair of bulls. Hayard Monarch was a bull of exceptional size and substance whose daughters are among Acadia's biggest and most prized brood cows. Stockmen from more than half the states and provinces of North America as well as foreign countries have selected Napoleons from Acadia to work improvement in their herds. Here's another that can do the same. The Acadia herd is TB Accredited and Brucellosis-free certified.

ACADIA NAPOLEON 66th was one of the first AAA bulls in America. His sons and daughters have been champions and top-sellers both East and West. He is the sire of Lots 3, 16, 17, and 21.

ACADIA NAPOLEON 162nd—The All-American and AAA Acadia Napoleon 66th is famous as a sire of big, thick and beefy stock bulls and this one is a sterling example. A January junior yearling, he carries the Kinellar Napoleon-Calrossie Troubadour-Calrossie Sportsman cross that has written new chapters of Shorthorn history for Acadia and for the breed. His lovely dam is a member of Acadia's reliable and prolific imported Garguston Pauline tribe. The Primula's at Acadia have accounted for a long line of champions and top-sellers including the $2,000 top female of the 1965 "Choice of Champions" sale that went to Tempel Farms. The Acadia herd is TB Accredited and Brucellosis-free certified.

TUTIRA PARAGON was reserve grand champion of the 1964 Eastern National Exposition for R. Lee Johnson. He is the sire of Lots 4 and 43.
